“T did a lot of research before starting my master’s. I remember I looked at companies like Mentor Graphics, Intel, Lime Research—I can’t even name all of them. I was looking at those companies and what kind of students they [are looking] for. I got in touch with a few student[s] on LinkedIn that went to Oregon State [who later worked] at Intel. I got their input of what it was like going to school [at OSU] and what kind of career opportunities [are available] right after.”

The contact lens is a hypothetical application of a transparent sensor developed at OSU. The goal is to expand contact lens sensors to a range of tear fluid biomarkers, which can be used to identify a range of ocular disorders (dry eye disease, diabetic retinopathy, glaucoma, etc.), cancers (colon, prostate, breast, lung, etc.), multiple sclerosis and many other diseases.

Imagine if robots had legs and could walk on the same terrain as people. Agility Robotics, a company first developed at OSU, is making robotic mobility a reality. Advanced mobility could change the future by enabling shipping to be more automated and opening up new possibilities in manufacturing and production.

Students can apply to pursue a research or creative activity under the guidance of an OSU mentor, with an award of $750, and mentors receive $250 for project-related costs.

The College of Business Research Suite is outfitted with cutting-edge technology, space and design to conduct innovative research in business, market trends and consumer insights. Apply your research through entrepreneurship programs and access the C2C Marketing Lab. Students can also participate in the Advantage Accelerator, a unique program designed to assist startups in all stages of their growth. You will work directly with innovators and entrepreneurs to explore markets, develop products and obtain customers.

Your customized first-year experience as an international student

At OSU, we’ve been leading the way for international student support and success in the US. Through the years, we’ve helped international students grow to become leaders in their social and academic communities on campus as they gather the experiences that build their futures. We are right by your side to help you with the small decisions such as which room type would suit you best to the bigger decisions such as which degree specializations lead to which internships and jobs. Every undergraduate international student at OSU begins their journey with the standard OSU first-year experience with access to additional support and services for international students from INTO OSU and the Office of International Services (OIS). As an OSU undergraduate, we are here to ensure you start out on a good note.

A New and Improved Undergraduate Experience

We are happy to announce that from September 2020, OSU will launch a simplified and enhanced first-year experience for all international students. With three simple options to enter OSU undergraduate programs as an international student, you will start at OSU with the level of support that you need.

Our three entry routes—International Direct (ID), International Year One (IYO) and Academic English—accommodate students with varying levels of English and academic qualifications. International Direct is designed for international students that are independent and fully qualified but may benefit from some support and assistance in adjusting to university life in the US. International Year One (Pathway) provides more structure and support in the first three or four terms for students whose academic and language qualifications are below International Direct requirements. Finally, for students that are not quite ready to start academic courses, our Academic English program will help you build the language skills to reach the level required to start an ID or IYO program.

A PERSONALIZED STUDY PLAN
Your study plan will be established by your English level as well as your chosen major. Your priority registration process will include the core courses included in the First-Year Experience for your academic major as well as any language and study skills courses that you may need to ensure you are successful.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT RESOURCES
You have the same full access to all the academic support and tutoring resources provided to OSU undergraduate students. In addition, you have access to the INTO OSU Learning Center where you can take advantage of resources and tutoring specifically created for international students.

TERM-LONG ORIENTATION
Starting in 2020, additional orientation will take place in small groups over an entire term as opposed to just one week when you are tired and jet-lagged. This means you will have more time to ask questions, attend seminars to learn university basics and adjust to American life in general. This gives you the best start for your studies and your life here in the US.

COMPREHENSIVE INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT
From your first days we provide pre-arrival advice, arrival support and acclimation orientations after arrival. Once you’re on campus, the support doesn’t end. You will have access to cultural assistance and community building experiences to help you integrate on campus and build connections with friends and faculty.

INDIVIDUALIZED ADVISING AND GUIDED REGISTRATION
Our dedicated advisors will ensure that you register for the classes you need to feed your intellectual appetite and make sure you graduate on schedule. We will guide you through the registration process, so you don’t have to figure it out all on your own until you are ready to be fully independent.

The Power of International Direct

Before you leave home to study at a university in the US, you might not know what it’s going to be like. With International Direct at OSU, you don’t have to worry about anything. You will receive the information you need predeparture. You will be met on arrival at the airport and taken to your ready-made room on campus. You will receive the orientation information and experiences that you need in a way that makes sense. You will have the full first-year experience of your academic major in the department and college where you are studying. At the same time, you will have peace of mind knowing that you have OSU’s international student expertise at your fingertips. From selecting and registering for the right academic courses to accessing jobs, internships and other opportunities through on-campus support resources—we will be there for you every step of the way.
